

An aerial photograph of a luxury yacht, the Myne Azimut S8, cruising on the open sea at sunset. The yacht is white with a dark hull and is moving from the top left towards the bottom right, leaving a white wake. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow on the water and the yacht's surfaces. The yacht features a large cockpit with white cushions, a windshield, and a cabin. A smaller cabin is visible on the upper deck.

TOUCH ADRIATIC

www.touchadriatic.com

CREW PROFILE

MYNE AZIMUT S8

Captain MARIO HRGA

Nationality Croatian

Having in mind that the crew, especially the Captain, is sometimes the key element that participates in client's satisfaction, Mario is always willing to go the extra mile to get the job done properly and has demonstrated very good initiative and expansive job knowledge and is always pleasant with guests and crew. Working as a yacht Captain since 2007, he also has experience in running charter yachts under MYBA terms and private yachts up to 6 crew and 12 guests. Mario is familiar with cruising Mediterranean area and has proven himself dependable and conscientious operator, an excellent crew motivator and an administrator who plans his every step. He is accustomed to making difficult decisions and always prioritizes the safety of his crew, passengers and the vessel.

Chef DRAGO CIKOTIC

Nationality Croatian

Drago started working in kitchens of the hotel resorts since he was 14, working his way up and educating himself. Being a boat person and having a huge passion for travelling, he became a yacht chef, as a logical step in his career. With his extensive experience as a restaurant chef, Drago plays with various combinations of flavours, using as much local ingredients as possible. He always manages to surprise clients with one of his creations and his knowledge of Italian, French and Asian cuisine will leave no one indifferent.

Stewardess ALEXANDRA KRAUS

Nationality Croatian

Being a highly motivated individual who thrives in fast-paced environments, Alexandra is a valuable addition to MYNE's crew as a yacht stewardess. Attending various seminars and educating herself she developed a comprehensive skill set specifically tailored to the unique needs of luxury clientele. In the same time, Alexandra has a good eye for details and is able to always provide a high level of service. She enjoys interacting with different people and will not give up until a task is completed to the highest standard.