

An aerial photograph of the Adriatic Sea. A large white yacht is positioned in the lower right, with two ropes extending from the rocky, forested coastline to its stern. To the left, a smaller boat is moving in a circular pattern, leaving a white wake. The water is a deep blue-green color. A teal rectangular box is located in the upper left corner, containing the company name and website.

TOUCH ADRIATIC

www.touchadriatic.com

CREW PROFILE

ANAVI ADMIRAL

Captain TOMISLAV BILOKAPIC

Nationality Croatian

Captain Tomislav was born in 1989 in Split, Croatia. After graduation from Maritime high school in 2007 he started his career as a seafarer on commercial vessels, cruising all around the world. In nine years in yachting industry as a Captain, Tomislav was working on private yachts from 23-60 m and gained a substantial experience, becoming a competent project manager, effectively liaising between owners, guests and colleagues. With a strong work ethic, he is absolutely committed to ensuring the guests derive the greatest satisfaction from their yacht charter holiday.

Chef MARINO DIKIC

Nationality Croatian

Chef Marino was born in 1989 in Split, Croatia. He was studying for dentist technician but his passion for cooking was stronger and he has decided to change his life path and follow his dreams. Marino started to build his chef carrier in Berlin, Germany in 2012 in Italian fine dinning restaurants and five star hotels. In 2017, Marino opened his street food restaurant in his home town of Split. From 2019 Marino started to work on passenger delux and superior ships as a Head Chef. His specialty is modern Mediterranean cuisine, Spanish avanguard and Asian cuisine. This is his first season on MY Anavi and during your stay on MY Anavi you will enjoy in magnificent food and his good sense for humor.

Chief Officer JAKOV PARLOV

Nationality Croatian

Jakov graduated at the Faculty of Maritime Studies, University of Split. After graduation he finished the cadetship and passed the officer exam. While studying at the university he was constantly working in sailboat and motorboat charter where he gained valuable working experience and wide range of different skills. He is looking forward to continuing his job career as a Chief officer, and eagerly awaits the challenges and opportunities of this position. He is looking forward to continuing his job career as a Chief officer, and eagerly awaits the challenges and opportunities of this position.

Chief Engineer BRANISLAV JOVIC

Nationality Croatian

Branislav is a good team worker, always willing to help any department. He is adaptable and professional chief engineer with a positive and enthusiastic attitude, keeping the boat in accordance with the flag state. After finishing High Marine Technician School, he went on with his education gaining all certificates necessary for managing all operations and maintenance that has to do with engineering equipment throughout the vessel.

Chief Stewardess NEVENA JURIC

Nationality Croatian

Nevena is hardworking and personable yacht stewardess with more than 10 years of experience in the yacht hospitality industry. She demonstrates a passion for service, a dedication to guest satisfaction and easily and professionally interacts with guests, providing excellent service in every aspect of their on-board experience. In her role she demonstrates knowledge of expert housekeeping and laundry protocols, fine dining, and wine service as well as inventory management, skilled organization, and administration of interior items.

2nd Stewardess ANJA ASANOVIC

Nationality Croatian

Born and raised in Split, Anja worked in hotel administration and reception for several years and then graduated business administration on Midwestern Career College in Chicago. Being a hard working and responsible crew member, Anja is determined to give her best to contribute in making an unforgettable holiday for each client.