Ivan Ivcevic

CHEF

Croatian

With a culinary degree specialized in Seafood, Fish, Italian, French, Mediterranean, Japanese, Fusion, and Middle Eastern cuisine, Ivan is a confident and competent chef with extensive experience in both private and charter settings. Having cruised the Mediterranean and Adriatic Seas for high-profile clients, he is adept at providing unrivalled gastronomic experiences. His culinary expertise is complemented by a series of awards, including recognition in Italian & French cuisine from Villeroy & Boch, Mediterranean & Greek culinary accolades, and Seafood & Sushi expertise. He excels in creating menus tailored to dietary restrictions, including low carb, sugar-free, diabetic, and allergy adjustments, as well as specialty desserts and baking arts. His background in Croatian fish restaurants underscores his commitment to healthy, fresh, and nutritional meals. A natural leader with a pulse on culinary trends, he excels in communication, organization, and teamwork, delivering exceptional dining experiences with a focus on locally sourced ingredients and customizable menus.

Jordana Vukovic

SOUS CHEF

Croatian

Jordana comes from Jesenice, a small coastal village with a deep-rooted maritime tradition. The sea runs in her veins—her great-grandfather was among the first in the village to own a ship, and her grandfather was one of the first formally educated captains. Though rooted in maritime heritage, Jordana initially followed a different path, earning a degree in Graphic Engineering and spending nearly 30 years in Eastern Europe's largest media company. But eventually, her twin passions—cooking and the sea—called her back. She began a new chapter aboard the ship Providnost, cooking for 30 people in her first season. Her culinary journey continued with the renowned hospitality group Falkensteiner, where she refined her skills in local and international cuisine. The sea called again, and she spent two years on MV Navigator, creating and serving curated menus for over 50 guests. With every dish, Jordana brings a piece of her home, heritage, and warmth. For her, the kitchen is more than a workplace—it's a space for connection, creativity, and love. Today, she's back where she belongs: at sea, aboard Argo, giving guests a true taste of Dalmatia.

Zlatko Rako

DECKHAND 1

Croatian

Zlatko is from Split, Croatia. He grew up in a seafarer family with boats and sea being a part of his life from the day he was born. He is passionate about boats, sea and fishing. His whole life is around water, including his choice in sports and hobbies such as swimming and water polo. Yachting is something that he faced a few years back and he saw it as a possible career. Now he is part of the Argo crew and he is ready to give his all with a positive attitude, and of course to give all the best effort to ensure the guests are having fun.

Duje Jurjevic

DECKHAND 2

Croatian

Duje was born in Split, Croatia, a stunning city on the Adriatic coast. Growing up by the sea, he learned to swim before the age of three and spent years as a member of a swimming club. His love for the ocean only grew stronger, leading him to take up diving. His yachting career started early, and it has already taken him to many incredible places. Determined to advance in the industry, he earned his Yachtmaster certification and continues to push forward. Duje is friendly, responsible, and outgoing, always giving his best to every crew member. Outside of yachting, he enjoys tennis, hiking, diving, and even trains kickboxing.

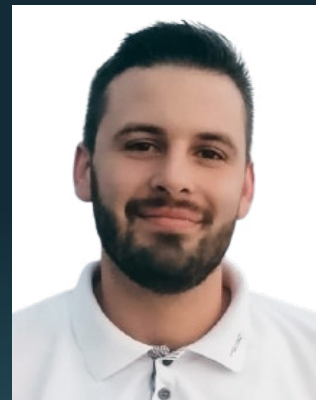

Petar Spajic

DECKHAND 3

Croatian

Growing up in Split, Petar has been surrounded by the sea and sports his whole life. His journey began as a skipper on day trips before transitioning into the yachting industry. He thrives on working with people, operating water toys, and driving a tender. His hands-on approach and enthusiasm make him a valuable crew member. With a strong work ethic and determination, Petar is committed to gaining experience and advancing his career, with the ultimate goal of becoming a captain.

Filip Paladin

DECKHAND 4

Croatian

Filip is a qualified and experienced deckhand with four successful seasons in the yachting industry. He is proficient in sailing, mooring, anchoring, and all aspects of vessel maintenance, including cleaning, polishing, engine room care, and bilge management. Filip has also managed provisioning budgets, assisted with bartending and meal service, and ensured guests are well-informed and comfortable throughout their journey. Known for his responsibility, strong work ethic, and positive team spirit, he thrives in dynamic environments and is always eager to learn and grow. With up-to-date maritime certifications and Powerboat Level 2 currently in progress, Filip is committed to building a long-term career at sea.
