

Miss Katariina

FERRETTI 880

Bruno Frana

CAPTAIN

Croatian

Honest, hardworking and reliable person, easy to work with and always keen to embrace new challenge. Bruno's objective is to make a stable environment on yacht by building relations based on trust and confidence with the owner, guests and crew. Seafaring has always been involved in his life as well as free time and as his work. He is always ready to give a hand to others and he is a trustworthy colleague who enjoys gaining responsibility. He is eager to develop his skills and values learning new and gaining experience. Bruno enjoys to exceed clients' dreams and create memorable memories that will last them a lifetime. He speaks English and Croatian.

Davor Generali

CHEF

Croatian

Davor brings over 20 years of extensive experience gained from working in upscale restaurants and aboard luxury motor yachts. Proficient in modern, Asian, and Greek cuisine, Davor's culinary repertoire is as diverse as it is refined. He enjoys expressing his sense of aesthetics through the presentation and composition of dishes in every meal. Known for his organization and creativity, Davor delights in crafting new dishes to create memorable charter experiences for clients. Fluent in English, he ensures seamless communication, allowing clients to easily convey their preferences to him.

Nina Anic

STEWARDESS

Croatian

Nina is a motivated and responsible Master's student at the Faculty of Maritime Studies in Split, with a strong interest in the yachting industry. She possesses fundamental maritime skills, excellent adaptability in new environments, and fluency in English. With extensive experience in hospitality and customer service, she thrives in team settings and dynamic, fast-paced environments. She is open to learning, quick to take initiative, and confident in handling responsibilities, especially in roles at sea. Her work history includes multiple seasonal roles as a waitress and assistant chef, demonstrating her commitment, reliability, and professionalism. She has gained practical skills in food and beverage service, kitchen hygiene, and guest relations, and has consistently worked during summer seasons while pursuing her education. Key strengths include teamwork and communication, task organization, understanding of maritime safety regulations, basic kitchen operations, and strong customer service orientation.

Stipe Gasperov

DECKHAND

Croatian

Stipe has good organisational skills gained working as a marine officer on challenging jobs in his career. He has strong sense of commitment to job, capable of organising others to follow him in the same direction. Stipe is hard working with excellent social skills. He is certified fitness trainer and is eager to support guests in maintaining their wellness routines while on board. Stipe is perfect addition to the team and the crew is happy to have him.